Jarrold "ThunderRock" Ball

Last nights Snowing Hunt brrrrrrrr!

Well call us crazy but we went out last night with the snow a blowing. We already had bout 8 inches on the ground and it was letting up a bit so we decided to take Rock, Molly... and Eillen took Halla. We turned'em lose and Rock treed..... got in there and it was a den (which i think it pretty darn good for how the weather was) we decided not to turn lose again because at this time.... its was a White Out! Couldn't see 4 feet in front of you it was bad and its still coming down as I type this. Well that's what Ol Lake Erie will do for yah.
